Koni, a native, was taken from a house in Dowsett lane to the Queen's hospital last night. He had quite a bad cut on one heel. Kuni claims he was held up by two white men on the railroad track near the Kalihi soap works. They told him to deliver his money but Kuni had none. One man suggested that they had better cut Kuni's throat. The other was in favor of cutting his feet, which they did. Kuni managed to crawl to Dowsett lane, whence a call was sent for the patrol
